Chapter 81: I want to Embarrass Her

Chu Yu stared at Jian Qi with hostility. She then sneered at her before covering herself with her quilt. Zhang Xiao glanced at her before going to sleep as well.

Mu Zi got down from her bed and poured her a glass of water. "Are you okay?"

Jian Qi shook her head. "I'm fine. I'll take a shower first. You go ahead and rest!"

She took a quick shower. After that, she lay down on her bed. Her hair was only half dry after having dried her hair with the hairdryer. She took a look at her long head of hair, the more she looked at it the more she felt that it was too troublesome to keep her hair long!

The training today was nothing to her compared to her previous training. However, her body was not as strong as it was before. Just with the training she had done today, she felt as if her body was about to collapse given how weak her current body was.

Needless to say, Jian Qi slept soundly that night. She did not want to wake up the next morning.

However, she had to force herself to wake up the minute she heard the whistle.

Early in the morning, their warm up session was the same as the one the day before, running with a load for five kilometres.

After they had completed their run, everyone was then gathered at the shooting range.

"Let's relax a little bit today..." Feng Yi said. "I heard that some of you have excellent marksmanship. Some of you have even participated in some shooting competitions before. The results were not bad. You can step forward and do a demonstration.”

All of a sudden, everyone turned to look at Chu Yu.

Jian Qi looked at her too. She saw Chu Yu lifting her chin subconsciously. Chu Yu seemed to be quite proud about herself. Jian Qi could not help but raise an eyebrow. ‘Why are you so smug about that?’

Chu Yu was the champion of the national shooting competition for three consecutive years.

Everyone in the defense academy knew about Chu Yu. Chu Yu had also become the main training asset of the academy because of her excellent results when she entered the academy.

She would be a great selection to be trained as a marksman.

“Chu Yu, go ahead!” Zhang Xiao smiled and said.

Every student looked at her expectantly. They were eager to see how the national shooting champion would perform her marksmanship right in front of their eyes.

When everyone was encouraging Chu Yu to demonstrate, Feng Yi then said, “Chu Yu, fall out!”

Chu Yu stepped forward and took the gun from Feng Yi.

Then, she lied belly-down on the ground. Her movements and skills were all on point. She held the gun firmly and aimed at the target in front of her. After proper preparation, she fired the gun without hesitation.

When it was over, Chu Yu got up from the ground. She was smiling smugly.

Tang Jinyu lifted a pair of binoculars and looked at the target far away from them.

Chu Yu glanced at Tang Jinyu. But, she could not help but feel a tinge of disappointment when she saw that Tang Jinyu remained expressionless.

Jian Qi looked at Tang Jinyu at the same time. She was rather surprised.

Chu Yu was indeed excellent. How could he refrain from giving any response?

“Not bad.” Feng Yi said. “Ninety eight ring! Excellent!”

It was indeed a good performance. Since Chu Yu had participated in indoor shooting competitions before, she was still able to perform well in the outdoor shooting range. She was not affected by the weather too. Even a soft gust of wind, the humidity or the direction of the wind would have a certain effect on one’s shooting.

It was rather an excellent result!

“Thank you, Associate Instructor!” Chu Yu smiled and said. She could not refrain from showing her smugness.

She threw a look at Jian Qi, one that seemed to be challenging her. She soon realized that Jian Qi was looking at Tang Jinyu instead of her.

Her facial expression darkened but she immediately recovered her senses.

She returned to her place. Then, she said to Feng Yi before he could say anything else. “Associate Instructor, Jian Qi told me before that her marksmanship is not bad as well. Why don’t you ask her to try too so that we can see how good she is?”

Everyone then looked at Jian Qi.

Jian Qi raised an eyebrow and tilted her head to look at Chu Yu. Then, she realized that Chu Yu was challenging her. She understood that Chu Yu wanted to embarrass her!

Chapter 82: Ten Ring? One Hundred Ring?

Mu Zi looked at Jian Qi. She knew what Chu Yu was planning as well. She could not help but frown slightly.

They met each other for the first time the day before. Jian Qi had never mentioned her marksmanship skills. Chu Yu was obviously trying to embarrass Jian Qi.

Moreover, how could Jian Qi be compared to Chu Yu even if Jian Qi knew how to shoot a gun? Chu Yu was the national champion and she had gone through plenty of practice.

If Jian Qi were to be defeated, she would surely be humiliated by everyone.

“Jian Qi, you...”

Mu Zi was about to voice out and give Jian Qi a hand. Chu Yu interrupted her, “Jian Qi, didn’t you say that you’re excellent in marksmanship yesterday? Why don’t you show us?”

Feng Yi knew what kind of tricks Chu Yu had up her sleeve. The girl he liked was being bullied. Should he do something to resolve it?

Feng Yi was about to say something when another cold voice was heard. “Jian Qi, fall out!”

Chu Yu gave Jian Qi a smug smile. Her eyes were gleaming with the look of utter satisfaction with the prospect of Jian Qi’s humiliation.

She wanted to see how terribly humiliated Jian Qi would be when she was defeated!

Did she think that she was outstanding just because she could run very well?

Jian Qi merely had good stamina.

Everyone else could not help but whisper among themselves.

“What is Jian Qi doing? Doesn’t she know her place?”

“That’s true. How can she challenge the national champion? What is she thinking? Is she mad?”

“Isn’t her academic results good?” Another girl said sarcastically. “She’s merely a bookworm. How can she challenge Chu Yu? Isn’t she just digging a hole for herself?”

“Just look at her! It seems like she has never touched a gun!”

“What’s with all the noise? Keep quiet!” Feng Yi commanded coldly.

They soon stopped their mutterings and stood in attention.

Jian Qi walked toward Feng Yi. Feng Yi looked at her and asked, "Can you do it?"

Jian Qi smiled playfully and wickedly. "We'll see about that."

Feng Yi handed her the gun.

Jian Qi took it from him. Then, she stepped forward a few steps and lied belly-down on the ground. She aimed her gun at the target far away from them. She took a glance at the patches of grass swaying along with the wind near her.

Then, she looked up again and tilted her head slightly. She closed one of her eyes, and looked at the bull's eye in the distance through the scope. At the same time, she was repositioning the gun and holding it firmly in her hands.

Chu Yu stared at her scornfully. She sure had a lot of gimmicks!

"Does she know how to do it? Why hasn't she fired the gun?"

The others could not help but start to whisper among themselves again. They soon kept quiet when Feng Yi gave them a cold stare.

Tang Jinyu looked at the young girl who was lying on the ground. His deep eyes were indiscernible. Nobody knew what he was thinking about.

Feng Yi was worried about Jian Qi. He did not want her to lose terribly.

The others were all staring at Jian Qi, certain of what the outcome would be. Whatever she was doing right now was all an act that would lead to her humiliation.

Jian Qi smiled softly. She seemed rather confident and reckless. At that moment, it felt as if her aura had changed.

Looking through the scope, Jian Qi's hand then moved to the trigger slowly. Then, she pulled the trigger.

"Boom! Boom! Boom!"

Ten bullets were fired continuously. Everyone then turned to look at the target.

Tang Jinyu lifted the binoculars once again and looked at the target. He narrowed his eyes slightly.

At the same time, Feng Yi grabbed the binoculars from him and looked at the target as well. He sounded rather surprised when he said, "Jian Qi, ten ring?"

After hearing what Feng Yi said, the other people's scornful whispering about Jian Qi became louder.

Tang Jinyu remained silent. Another instructor who was standing at a faraway position meant for announcing the shooting results said, "Jian Qi, one hundred ring!"

Everyone was utterly confused. Was it not ten ring?

Chapter 83: Absolute Confidence

Chu Yu's sarcastic smile froze all of a sudden. She stared at the target in disbelief.

Everyone lifted their binoculars and looked at the target.

Ten bullets were shot at the same spot on the first target.

From afar, it seemed like ten ring and the rest of the rings were missing.

"Oh my god! It's absolute confidence!" A guy could not help but wonder aloud.

"It's outstanding!"

"A sharpshooter?"

"How have we not heard anything about her?"

"If Jian Qi had gone and participated in the national shooting competitions, Chu Yu would surely not be the champion."

"She's indeed my goddess! I liked her beauty before. Now, I realize that she has great talents too!"

"She's a true Lady Kao in the real world. Now, it seems like 'King of Guns' is designed for her!"

Most of the students who praised Jian Qi were males since the girls were condemning her just moments ago. The girls were hostile toward Jian Qi.

That target seemed to have slapped the girls, who looked down on Jian Qi, senseless.

Chu Yu looked at the round hole that was shot through by the bullets. It was rather annoying.

Compared to Jian Qi's results, what Chu Yu did just now was utter rubbish.

It was worthless!

Jian Qi chose the first target although there were a lot of targets there. Was she trying to tell Chu Yu that she was the champion instead?

It seemed like the target had given Chu Yu a vehement slap as well.

Her facial expression worsened when she heard their exclamations of amazement.

Her hands that were hanging loosely beside her were now clenched into tight fists, and she looked coldly at Jian Qi.

Jian Qi seemed so nonchalant. It seemed like she was not surprised at her own results.

Chu Yu felt as if Jian Qi did not care about her results just now.

Tang Jinyu walked toward them. Then, he looked at Jian Qi and said coldly, "Did you all see that?"

The guys exclaimed and clapped their hands.

Tang Jinyu said again with his frosty voice, "Everyone get ready. An hour of shooting practice will begin now!"

Everyone was taken aback that the instructor did not even praise her for that kind of excellent result she had produced.

How strict was he!

However, Feng Yi understood why as that was how they had gone through their own training.

If they wanted the boss's praise, they needed to fulfill his every single command.

However, he was indeed surprised to see Jian Qi's results. Even if they were talented and had undergone special training before, they would only be able to hit the bullseye. They would never be able to precisely hit the same target at the same spot like her.

Feng Yi looked at Jian Qi in a way like he was looking at a treasure. What else was hidden inside of her?

Jian Qi was not surprised at Tang Jinyu's response. That was why he was single!

He did not even know how to praise others!

Jian Qi held the gun in her hand. Then, she lied belly-down once again just like everyone else. They began their training.

Chu Yu's face was dark and sombre. Although Tang Jinyu did not praise Jian Qi just now, what he said caused her to be displeased.

Jian Qi did not even hit the bullseye!

Chu Yu tilted her head and looked at Jian Qi who remained calm and nonchalant. It was as if what had happened just now did not affect her at all.

Chu Yu hated how she was behaving. It felt like she was laughing at her sarcastically!

Jian Qi!

Then, she came to her senses and aimed at the target in front of her. She then pressed the trigger. Her eyes were filled with deep hatred!

Feng Yi approached Tang Jinyu and said, "Boss, why do I feel like the information that I have obtained regarding Jian Qi is wrong?"

Tang Jinyu tilted his head and threw him a glance. "I'm so happy now that you know that you're wrong!"

Feng Yi was speechless.

Chapter 84: You Take Yourself Too Seriously!

"You're going to train for close combat today. Two in a group. You're free to choose your own partners..."

Everyone started to look for their partners from among their classmates who were standing beside them as soon as Feng Yi gave his command.

Mu Zi was standing beside Jian Qi. She smiled and said, "Jian Qi... how about the two of us..."

Mu Zi was interrupted by someone else. Chu Yu walked to them from the other side. She said rather proudly, "Jian Qi, I'm sure you don't mind being my partner!"

Jian Qi raised an eyebrow. She said directly without the fear of embarrassing Chu Yu, "But, I do mind."

Chu Yu's face fell slightly.

"Why? Are you afraid of being beaten up by me?" Chu Yu asked coldly.

Jian Qi smiled playfully. "You're even more shameless than me!"

"You!"

Chu Yu was angry. She still remembered how Jian Qi had humiliated her during shooting practice the other day.

She wanted to use the opportunity to beat Jian Qi up openly without any repercussions.

Anger rose in her like bile, she raised her hand and threw a punch at Jian Qi.

Mu Zi was worried looking at the two of them. She wanted to say something to stop them from fighting but Zhang Xiao came and stopped her. "Mu Zi, it's fine. Chu Yu knows what she's doing. Let's train."

Mu Zi glanced at Feng Yi and Tang Jinyu. They did not show any response. Then, she turned to look at Jian Qi and Chu Yu again.

Chu Yu was attacking Jian Qi relentlessly. However, Jian Qi managed to dodge her attacks the whole time. The situation did not seem all that dangerous.

“Faster! One attack, the other defend. Change every ten minutes!”

Feng Yi said.

Mu Zi had no choice but to practice with Zhang Xiao.

Chu Yu was the one attacking now. She did not slow down her pace. Her attacks were fast and strong.

Jian Qi retreated and dodged her attacks every single time.

“Chu Yu, don’t cross the line!” Jian Qi reminded her.

Chu Yu’s face darkened. “Jian Qi, aren’t you very outstanding? Don’t you want to be the champion everytime? Today, I just want to see who is stronger. Your fist or mine?”

After that, she quickened her pace and approached Jian Qi again.

She threw her vigorous punches at Jian Qi with lightning speed. It seemed like she really wanted to beat her up!

Just by looking at Chu Yu’s attacks, Jian Qi felt as if she had met someone who was utterly insane.

Ten minutes went by. Chu Yu realized that she did not get to hurt Jian Qi at all.

She was deeply dissatisfied.

She then found a chance and she reached out to grab Jian Qi. She was about to push Jian Qi when Tang Jinyu spoke again with his cold voice. “Time’s up. Change your roles!”

Chu Yu froze. Jian Qi smiled and said, "It's a pity. You didn't get to beat me up!"

Chu Yu's face darkened. She did not seem to have a care in the world as she pushed Jian Qi directly. Jian Qi then fell onto the ground.

"What are you doing? Didn't you hear what I said?"

Tang Jinyu stonily said to them. Even though she really wanted to attack Jian Qi, she could no longer do that.

Jian Qi smiled at her. Her smile was rather irritating for Chu Yu. Chu Yu felt like she was challenging her.

Chu Yu could only calm herself down. It was now Jian Qi's turn to attack. Her movements were light but her speed was so much faster than Chu Yu just now.

Before Chu Yu could come to her senses, she was hit by Jian Qi and she toppled over onto the ground.

"Although I don't like to look for trouble on my own initiative, it doesn't mean that I'm a coward. Do you really think that I wouldn't beat you up? Chu Yu, you take yourself too seriously!"

Jian Qi said coldly. Then, she pressed Chu Yu's arm with one hand. Her aura was powerful and she seemed quite overbearing at the moment.

"We're classmates. I don't want to be on bad terms with you. It's not nice. This is my last advice for you!"

Jian Qi then shoved her directly.

Chu Yu staggered and fell onto the ground. Her eyes became dark and cold.

She got up and she sounded sarcastic. "Who is your classmate? Jian Qi, I'm telling you now. Only one of us can stay here. I'll definitely make sure that you will no longer stay in the academy. Just you wait and see!"

"Why do you not understand what I'm telling you? If that's the case, we'll see. Let's just see who will be the one who leaves in the end!" Jian Qi smiled playfully. Her nonchalance seemed to imply that Chu Yu was not worth her time.

Chu Yu truly despised the way she was behaving. It made her feel like a clown who was putting on a show all by herself.

She could not hold back her anger. She then charged at Jian Qi without any hesitation. Who would even care about the rules right now? She did not care who was supposed to be attacking now.

Jian Qi smiled coldly. She would not back down since Chu Yu was so eager to die.

Chapter 85: Shouldn't You Do This in Close Combat?

Before Chu Yu could punch her, Jian Qi held up her hand and grabbed Chu Yu's hand. Then, she lifted her and threw Chu Yu over her shoulders mercilessly. Chu Yu fell with a thud on the ground.

Her movement was fast and strong. Having fallen flat on her back, Chu Yu felt a sharp pain on her back.

Jian Qi did not allow her time to rest. She then grabbed her from the ground. After that, she clenched her fist and gave Chu Yu a heavy punch on her stomach. Chu Yu drew in a cold breath because of the pain.

Chu Yu was doubled over in great pain.

Jian Qi grabbed her shoulders, raised her leg and bent it slightly upward. What followed was a kick to her chest.

Before Chu Yu could get up, Jian Qi tilted her elbow and slammed it with great force onto Chu Yu's cheek.

Chu Yu took a few steps backward. Without even a second to spare, she was grabbed by Jian Qi again. Jian Qi grabbed her arms and flung her aside. Then, she kicked her chest once again. Chu Yu was kicked heavily and she fell down on the ground. Jian Qi then stepped on her chest.

Their great commotion shocked the others who were training beside them. All of them stopped their training and looked at the scene before them in great horror.

“What are you doing?” Tang Jinyu said coldly.

Jian Qi stopped her attacks and stood at the side. Then, she said innocently, “Instructor, didn’t you say that it’s close combat? If it’s close combat, getting minor injuries is unavoidable!”

As she was talking, Jian Qi lowered her eyes and looked at Chu Yu who was lying on the ground. There was blood on the corner of Chu Yu’s lips. Jian Qi smiled playfully and said, “Am I right, Chu Yu?”

Zhang Xiao and Mu Zi rushed over and helped the injured Chu Yu up on her feet.

Chu Yu wiped away the blood on her lips and stared at Jian Qi coldly. But, she said nothing.

The others gave Jian Qi a frightful look.

They thought that Jian Qi was just a beautiful girl who was good at running and shooting, but was still a gentle girl as a whole.

However, it seemed like she was rather violent!

Just look at how badly Jian Qi had beaten Chu Yu up!

Moreover, Jian Qi appeared nonchalant and playful. She did not seem to care about what she had done. The way she looked right now was rather annoying and reckless. They soon had a whole new impression of her!

Jian Qi was a girl who used only three months to break her image as merely a beautiful girl in the entertainment circle. Now, she used only one month to make everybody realize that she was not a weak bookworm.

She seemed reckless and playful, just like a gangster. Now, she was labelled as a bad girl who was prone to violence.

Feng Yi touched his nose rather awkwardly. There was so much change in her. She was such a violent girl. Should he reconsider whether or not to pursue her?

He did not think that he would be able to take it!

She was even more ruthless than the guys in a fight!

It appeared that Chu Yu was not able to stand properly. Her face was filled with bruises and scars...

Hmm...

Why was she so good at fighting? How could she beat Chu Yu up that badly?

If he were to ever fight with Jian Qi in the future, would he be beaten up vehemently to the point where he would look like a panda?

It was true that being gentler was much better.

Tang Jinyu looked at Jian Qi who stood before him. She appeared so calm and relaxed. She did not care how the others looked at her. She seemed so arrogant like that!

“Send Chu Yu to the clinic. The rest of you continue your training. Jian Qi, come with me!” Tang Jinyu commanded coldly.

The others could feel Tang Jinyu’s intensified suppression clearly. They continued their training obediently while Jian Qi calmly followed behind him.

Tang Jinyu stopped and turned to look at her when they were about five metres away from the others. “Why did you beat her up?”

“Report, Instructor. I didn’t beat her up. It’s training. Shouldn’t we do this in close combat?” Jian Qi appeared calm but her smile was arrogant.

“Are you trying to fool me?” Tang Jinyu voiced out coldly. Yet, he did not show any emotions.

Chapter 86: You Look So Charming When You Smile, Instructor!

Even though there was a powerful sense of oppression emanating from Tang Jinyu, she could still feel his callousness.

Jian Qi smiled calmly. “You are always so cautious, Instructor. The kind and innocent me is no match against you. I was really training, and probably used a little bit too much strength. You can't blame me just because Chu Yu is so delicate!"

"So is it my fault then?" Tang Jinyu said in annoyance.

"No, it's my fault," Jian Qi apologized willingly. "My fault for being too strong!"

"..."

"Jian Qi, you listen closely." Tang Jinyu felt like punching Jian Qi who was still proudly shaking her legs.

Jian Qi immediately stood up properly in attention.

"Do you know what you have done today?"

"Proper training!"

Tang Jinyu scoffed. "What kind of training involves you beating up your classmates?!"

"It's not a big deal, Instructor. Injuries are inevitable. If she can't handle small injuries like that, how can she protect the country in the future?" Jian Qi spoke confidently.

Tang Jinyu smiled smugly. "You spoke so well. Why not be a comedian!"

"It is always better to do something well, action speaks louder than words. Hence, I'll treat every training as if we are on the battlefield. There can only be success and no failures. Therefore, I can't help it if I hurt anyone!"

Jian Qi was displaying a very serious attitude.

Staring at the woman in front of him, he felt like beating her up.

"I never knew that you had such great ambitions and responsibilities though!"

"Please do not use your short-sightedness to pass judgement on my great ambitions and responsibilities, Instructor!"

"I did not want to punish you at first, Jian Qi. Now, I've changed my mind!" Tang Jinyu looked at her with a smug look on his face.

‘Oh sh*t, I overdid it!’

“I’m young and stupid, Instructor. If I said anything wrong, can you act as if you heard nothing...” Jian Qi looked at him and coughed unnaturally. “Can you act as if you heard nothing?”

Tang Jinyu sneered and said with a sense of mockery, “You have such good fighting skills and fluent oral skills. Excellent in persuading people. I didn’t even realize that I have such a great student all along!”

“You’re strong, right? I’ll accompany you for your training today. Alright?”

Tang Jinyu gently touched her head and smiled.

The smile made his enigmatic features even more lethal.

However, everyone who saw that touch was immediately shocked.

How endearing...

Jian Qi was obsessed with good looks. His beautiful features and charming smile were absolutely stunning.

“You look so charming when you smile, Instructor!” She smiled brightly.

The sudden tease made Tang Jinyu’s smile become slightly spooky.

“Charming, right?” Tang Jinyu smiled even brighter. “I’ll be even more charming later. Trust me!”

Jian Qi cleared her throat awkwardly.

Indeed, proud men cannot be teased!

“Let’s start!” Tang Jinyu said.

Jian Qi smiled. “Instructor, please have mercy on me!”

Tang Jinyu calmly copied her words. “Injuries are inevitable. If you can’t handle small injuries, how can you protect the country in the future?”

Chapter 87: Ridiculous Qi

“You’ll start as the attacker. Begin!” Tang Jinyu said.

Jian Qi looked at him cunningly.

She raised her hand holding up a fist and charged toward Tang Jinyu.

Instead of dodging her, Tang Jinyu held onto her fist. He used quite a bit of strength and flipped her over, making her fall onto the ground. His movement was fast.

Tang Jinyu cracked his knuckles and looked at Jian Qi who was lying on the ground. He said emotionlessly, “Get up and continue.”

After Jian Qi fell onto the ground she stayed put and refused to stand up. “You made me fall. I need Instructor to hug me first, then I’ll get up!”

“Are you trying to be ridiculous now?” Tang Jinyu kicked her leg. “Get up.”

“I can’t, I’m hurt. My whole body is in pain...”

Jian Qi was not stupid. Even though she had been training for some time, she was still no match for him.

She knew when she should back down.

The other students who were training from far away were confused. The last they saw, the instructor was touching her head, and now Jian Qi had been flipped over onto the ground.

Tsk... The instructor was really cruel and violent.

It took him less than a few seconds to flip her over, and now she could not even get up.

Feng Yi was observing from a distance and he saw everything.

Was the boss not being way too harsh on her?

He would never take internal fights into his own hands. Why would he beat her up this time?

Feng Yi then thought about Jian Qi's skinny legs. Boss would break them like twigs!

Should he stop them?

She was still lying on the ground teasing him. "You're really strong, Instructor. My whole body seems to be falling apart!"

Tang Jinyu bent down and grabbed her by her shirt.

"Stand properly!"

Jian Qi reached out her hands and wrapped them tightly around his neck. She hung onto him like a koala bear would hang onto a tree.

Tang Jinyu frowned. He tried to pull her arms away but she was way stronger than he thought. She hung onto him so tight that he could not push her away.

Jian Qi snickered cheekily.

She had her ways in dealing with such a situation if she were not able to fight against him.

"Let go!" Tang Jinyu warned her.

"I can't stand properly..." Jian Qi replied.

Tang Jinyu was frustrated. He tried to pull her away again, but she was clinging onto him too tightly.

As he was struggling, he fell backward and hit a rock.

Jian Qi quickly pushed him down on his back and sat on top of him.

Jian Qi wanted to laugh so badly looking at the irritated Tang Jinyu. But she was rational enough to keep it in as she said, "Aren't you taking things too quickly, Instructor?!"

"Jian Qi, run ten laps. Get up and run now!" Tang Jinyu said.

"No more close combat, Instructor?" Jian Qi replied.

“I’ll train with you again after you finish your laps!” Tang Jinyu gritted his teeth, wanting so much to tear her apart.

Jian Qi giggled, with his frosty eyes on her, she got up leisurely and started her laps.

Tang Jinyu wanted to follow her but a man wearing an army camouflage shirt came by and said to him, “Sir, the principal wants to see you.”

Tang Jinyu nodded. He looked at the girl who was running slowly on the field, and his lips stretched into a fine line.

There were a few men wearing army uniforms in the principal’s office. A man stood up when Tang Jinyu walked in. He looked at Tang Jinyu. “Instructor Tang, your student has openly beaten up another student. How do you plan to settle this issue?”

“Director Liang, that is a serious accusation! Accusing a student of something like that is too much, isn’t it?”

Tang Jinyu had a strong and oppressive aura, yet he was not disrespectful, nor displayed any weakness.

Chapter 88: Did She Have To Be So Weak?

Director Liang’s face fell. Everyone in the academy respected him. However, was Tang Jinyu not being too arrogant right now?

“Instructor Tang, you can’t be telling me that Chu Yu, who is in the infirmary covered in injuries, fell on her own?” Director Liang questioned him.

“They were just having their usual practice. If Director Liang were to fuss over everyone’s injuries, does that also mean that they don’t have to do training anymore?” Tang Jinyu replied firmly, showing no signs of backing down whatsoever. “Or is it because Chu Yu is the one who is injured, hence you have to attend to it personally?”

The director turned and looked at Deng Guofeng who was sitting by the office table. “I strongly recommend that you expel Jian Qi, Sir. Such a student should not be allowed to stay!”

“I disagree!” Tang Jinyu looked serious, and his stand was firm. “She has not done anything wrong. There is no reason to expel her!”

“Beating other students up is not considered a serious reason?” Director Liang stared at Tang Jinyu. “Instructor Tang, you are being too overprotective. Even though Jian Qi has had good performances, she has issues with her behaviour. A student like this will only bring harm to our academy!”

“Watch yourself, Director Liang. As a teacher, isn’t it too much for you to say such things? She is my soldier and I will punish her if she has done anything wrong. It is not your call!”

Tang Jinyu had a tough stance against Director Liang on this one. His overwhelming aura was repressive and his words acted as a warning to the director.

His attitude itself was enough to put fear into people’s hearts.

However, Director Liang has not given up. He looked at Deng Guofeng. “I request to expel Jian Qi, Principal!”

Deng Guofeng was in a tight spot being the middleman between the school’s director and the instructor, who was also his favourite student, he brought in personally. He could not decide.

“What are others’ opinions on this?” Deng Guofeng looked at the other leaders of the school and asked.

The other leaders were speechless as well. They did not know what to do.

After all, these two people were not people they could easily offend!

Even though Tang Jinyu was just an instructor in this school, however, the Tang family as well as his position in the army were reasons why they could not possibly lay a finger on him.

As for Director Liang, he was also a terrifying character in their school.

In fact, the one that was injured was none other than his own niece, Chu Yu. Hence, they did not want to take a stand in this issue.

Everyone did not understand why Tang Jinyu would argue with the Chu family just for a newbie. Was it worth it?

Everyone else in the office chose to stay out of the matter. They looked at Deng Guofeng and shook their heads. "You should decide, Principal."

"Since both of you have your own opinions, let's bring in the students and see what they have to say," Deng Guofeng said, and asked his assistant to bring in the students. "Bring in Jian Qi and Chu Yu."

Soon after, Jian Qi arrived at the office. She immediately felt a strong tension in the room.

She raised an eyebrow and looked at Tang Jinyu. Tang Jinyu made eye contact and gave a warning sign that said: 'Stand properly'.

Jian Qi kept her cool and stood in attention.

Not long after, Chu Yu came in with a doctor supporting her.

Jian Qi glanced briefly at her. Did she have to be so weak?

She was the one who beat her up. She knew how much strength she used and was sure that her injuries were nothing serious, they were just a few scratches.

She would recover in a few days' time. She certainly knew how to act by appearing so fragile!

Chapter 89: Instructor Tang Protecting His Own

Jian Qi looked away and noticed the worried look on Director Liang's face.

Director Liang immediately moved forward and held onto Chu Yu. "Does it hurt?"

Chu Yu frowned and nodded her head in an upset manner.

"Doctor Lin, how are her injuries?" Director Liang looked at the doctor supporting Chu Yu and asked.

“She has twelve injuries in total. All caused by blunt force. She has also been kicked around the chest area causing serious bruising.”

“Now, everyone has heard what the doctor said. She has gone too far for beating up her own classmate! I strongly suggest that we expel her!” Director Liang glared at Jian Qi as if he wanted to throw punches at her.

Jian Qi shrugged her shoulders and returned his glare with a provocative smile.

Director Liang had never seen such a disrespectful student. Just as he was about to lecture her, Tang Jinyu stood in front of Jian Qi. “Director Liang...”

He said it in an oppressive manner, warning the director.

Director Liang turned away and looked at Deng Guofeng. “You heard it for yourself, Principal. This is a serious matter. Please expel her immediately.”

Chu Yu could not keep her eyes away from Tang Jinyu who was constantly trying to protect Jian Qi. She felt even more hatred toward Jian Qi.

She should have left way before this!

Deng Guofeng finally asked, “What happened, Chu Yu?”

Chu Yu replied weakly. “We were supposed to do close combat training today. I was assigned to be in the same group as Jian Qi. Everything was fine at first, but when it was her turn to attack, she beat me up rather harshly. I asked her to stop but she said ten minutes was not up yet and continued to punch me!”

Jian Qi scoffed. “What a sweet little lotus flower.”

Her voice was not too soft nor too loud, but everyone turned and looked at her. They could only see Tang Jinyu who was standing in front of her, and they all shifted their gaze.

It was the first time Jian Qi thought that Tang Jinyu was useful as a human wall.

He had a self-isolating function!

Chu Yu looked upset. Especially when she saw Tang Jinyu protecting Jian Qi, she felt even grumpier.

Deng Guofeng continued on, “Jian Qi, is it true? Did you hit her on purpose?”

Jian Qi poked her head out from behind Tang Jinyu. “Why would I beat her up on purpose? It was proper training. Unless close combat is a game of hugging?”

Her head disappeared behind Tang Jinyu once she finished speaking. She even tugged at Tang Jinyu to make sure that he was completely blocking her from everyone’s view.

Tang Jinyu smirked.

She was being too arrogant.

Why did she have to tug at him?

“She’s giving excuses, Principal!” Director Liang said angrily.

He wanted to glare at her but she was completely blocked by Tang Jinyu!

He would have never imagined that Tang Jinyu would go against him just for a freshman.

Did he not know the consequences?

He knew that Tang Jinyu was a stubborn person. If he were to protect Jian Qi, he would not give up.

It was not ideal to go against the Tangs!

“Instructor Tang, Chu Yu is also your soldier yet you are protecting Jian Qi. Isn’t it too much?”

Director Liang said.

“So you do know that they are both my soldiers!” Tang Jinyu’s sarcastic words were laced with mockery. “Chu Yu, how would you like to settle this matter?”

Chapter 90: Revoke Tang Jinyu's Position As an Instructor

Chu Yu was dumbfounded when Tang Jinyu allowed her to decide. She looked at Director Liang for assistance.

Director Liang nodded to her as if he was telling her to say whatever that was on her mind and he would support her!

Chu Yu then said, "I just feel wronged that I was beaten up. The Principal should decide."

Chu Yu did not mention anything as to how she would like to settle the issue. However, the way she worded her feelings made Jian Qi's actions seem wrong.

After hearing what Chu Yu had to say, Deng Guofeng smiled and said, "If that's the case, Jian Qi will apologize and the both of you will go back to training like nothing ever happened."

"Principal!" Director Liang was not happy with the outcome. It was as though they were helping Jian Qi.

"Chu Yu already said so herself, Director Liang. Do you still have any comments?"

Deng Guofeng cut him short and gave him a stern look, he was exuding a dignified aura.

Director Liang decided to hold it in. Deng Guofeng turned away and looked at Tang Jinyu. Just as he was about to talk to him about apologizing, Tang Jinyu said, "Jian Qi did not do anything wrong, Principal!"

His words stunned everyone.

This was the best way to settle the problem, but Tang Jinyu objected to the decision!

Chu Yu also looked at Tang Jinyu in disbelief.

Why would he protect her to such an extent?

Jian Qi knew that she would not apologize for this matter as well. She had been merciful to Chu Yu for not breaking any of her bones. If she really did injure her badly, she might apologize for being too harsh, and that would be all.

Jian Qi thought that she would have to extend her rage to everyone in the room with the prospect of having to apologize. However, Tang Jinyu rejected the request on her behalf before she could say anything!

Jian Qi thought about what Tang Jinyu had to say at the field and she realized that he never wanted to punish her. Hence, he never thought that she was wrong from the beginning!

Jian Qi was slightly surprised.

She always thought that he was too strict and by the book, but now he seemed rather smart as he knew that she was not wrong.

Seeing that he was trying to help her now, she decided to forgive him for asking her to run laps.

“What do you mean, instructor Tang?” Director Liang was unhappy. He had already decided to let it slide but Tang Jinyu was being arrogant.

He should not be so biased!

“This was supposed to be a proper training. Chu Yu knew well enough why Jian Qi would hit her!” Tang Jinyu’s words made Chu Yu feel guilty.

What did he know?

He was not even looking when they were at the field. How would he know that she was the one who started the fight?!

“Don’t be too arrogant, Instructor Tang. What do you mean? You are not saying that Chu Yu is the one bullying Jian Qi, are you?” Director Liang looked at Deng Guofeng, “I really did want to give her a chance and accept her apology, Principal. But I have had enough of Instructor Tang’s attitude. Now that he’s trying to frame Chu Yu for Jian Qi, I highly recommend that you expel Jian Qi and revoke Tang Jinyu’s position as an instructor. He’s not suitable to be an instructor!”

Deng Guofeng frowned. He was clearly upset.

The Liang family had crossed the line.

Tang Jinyu did not wait for Deng Guofeng to start talking. He laughed scornfully and pulled Jian Qi along with him out of the office.
